THUNDER BAY AIMS TO BE AN AGE FRIENDLY CITY BECAUSE...

Being age-friendly benefits everyone:
Children, the mainstream and seniors.

Being age-friendly recognizes the great diversity among seniors.

Being age-friendly promotes the inclusion of seniors in all areas of community life.

Being age-friendly respects seniors'
decisions and lifestyle choices.

Being age-friendly anticipates and responds flexibly to aging-related needs and preferences.

AGE-FRIENDLY IS GOOD FOR THUNDER BAY BUSINESSES BECAUSE SENIORS HAVE:

Purchasing power.

Loyalty to businesses and services that provide good experiences.

THUNDER BAY IS AGING

Thunder Bay's population is two years older that the median Ontario age.

As of 2006, 16% of Thunder Bay's population was aged 76 years of age and over.

By 2023, 33% of Thunder Bay's citizens will be 65 years of age and over.
